The British Rototherm Group Whistleblowing Policy 1 June 2014

1. Introduction

1.1 Employees may, in properly carrying out their duties, have access to, or come into contact with, information of a confidential nature. Their terms and conditions provide that except in the proper performance of their duties, employees are forbidden from disclosing, or making use of in any form whatsoever, such confidential information.

In order to be 'protected', a disclosure must relate to a specific subject matter (clause 2) and the disclosure must also be made in an appropriate way (clause 3). Whistleblowing protection is confined to a disclosure which, in the reasonable belief of the employee making the disclosure, is made in the public interest.

3. Disclosure Procedure

- 3.1 Information which an employee reasonably believes tends to show one or more of the above should promptly be disclosed to their line manager so that any appropriate action can be taken.
- 3.2 If it is inappropriate to make such a disclosure to the manager, the employee should speak to the Managing Director..
- 3.3 Employees will suffer no detriment of any sort for making such a disclosure in accordance with this procedure.
